Has you been drinking that day! A. I don't know that de right and the street of the street.

How was the defendant dressed then! A.—I could not distinctly; I only saw her as she came up the stoop.

Was her face uncovered? A.—I don't know that It was at, but I know that I recognized her.

Had you seen her between the first and that occasion? I can't say that I had; if I had, it was in the street.

You say you next saw her at No. 38 Wooster street; can state more definitely the time you saw her there! A.—I so.

you state more definitely the time you saw her there! A.—I cannot.

Q.—Had you seen the defendant between the time that you saw her in Variet street to this time! A.—I cannot say porimely but my impression is I saw her in the street frequently, and rubsequently to that time! Know! I did a dozen times passe as my office, at the corner of Fifth street and First avenue.

Q.—By whose direction did you go to the defendant's house!

L—I went at the request of Henry A. Carbart.

Q.—Were you promised anything for your trouble! A.—I was not; I did it as a matter of friendship for Harry; he told me as most of the street of the same of the same than the was semployed in some husdness at he time, that is, watching the defendant.

Q. When was that! A. That was one night the early part of at year, about a year ago this time.

Q. When you saw the defendant, what did you say to her!

Litoid her! I had been recommended to her house to engage room or rooms and board; she answered me very curtly that he had for rooms, or did not take boarders. I don't remember thick! I then left.

Q. Did you make any other remark to her!

A. No. A content.

Plaintiff's counsel requested him to answer. The witness thereupon says, Mr. H. Bell is one, Capt. George Noria is another, Christopher Hogue is another; these are the only parties I recollect, except Richard Lotty and Wm. Oldring, who are not of the Police; also, Joseph Thome.

Q. Were you paid by the city for your services? A. No, Sir. Q. In what manner were you to be compensated for your trouble in aiding these officers? A. By the parties interested.

Q. Whom do you mean by the parties interested? A. These various policemen.

Q. Were you what is called a shadow? A. No, I do not know what a shadow is.

what a shadow is.

Q. Have you not heard that name often used heretofore by potenmen. A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And you say you have no idea what it is? A. My idea of a "shadow" is a man that is attached to the Chief of Police's effice for the detection of thieves and the prevention of crime; but I don't knew that it is so; I wish to add to my snawer in respect to visiting houses of ill fame that I have visited them by invitation of strangers and residents, including lawyers and judger.

invitation of strangers and residents, including lawyers and Judger.

Direct examination resumed—Q. State anything particular that you saw at the defendant's house! A. On the cast side of house the third floor was what appeared to me to be a sleeping apartment; in the morning, about 8 or 9 o'clock, periaps later, I was in the grocery right opposite, and observed a young man in his shirt sleeves, apparently before the class brushing his hair and adjusting his cravat; I saw the defendant approach him in a very familar manner; she approached him and they put each others hands on their neck or shoulders in a familiar manner; they were in that condition almost a minute and then I saw her shortly after about three or four minutes in the basement window; I saw the young man come out of the house afterward, and she came to the front door with him, she took him by the arm and drew him back familiarly and said something to him as I supposed, and then he left.

On being cross-examined—Q. When was this? A. It must have been about the middle of March.

Q. Was the window open! A. No sir.

Q. Were there any blinds or curtains at the window? A. There were blinds, but they were open, and curtains, but partly up, about two-thirds up.

Q. Hen near the window were they! A. I should suppose

MONDAY, March 17-P. M. The business of the Stock Board was not very large Disbursing Checks, $75,663 88. to day, but at the Morning Board there was some dis position to buy, and the market had an upward ten-dency. Erie sold as high as 561 and Reading at 901.

At the Second Board when the figures of the Bank Statement were known, prices fell off, Erie selling as low as 56. There was afterward a little recovery, but at the close the market was heavy, Eric being 561 & 56}. The movement in Nicaragua continues large, the sales being 5,000 shares, opening at 13, advancing to 14], again receding to 12] and finally closing at 13], a decline of 21 per cent since Saturday, the result probably, of the withdrawal of the boats by Commodore Vanderbilt. The condition of this company continues to be the principal topic in the street, and we hear various rumors of steps to be taken to right the wrong. We hear among other rumors that two or three of the leading parties who are interested in this stock will leave for Washington tomorrow to lay the matter before the Government, and also that the arrangement between this company and the Pacific Steamship Company will go on, the Nicaragua boats being laid up for the present. This is thought to be better policy than to have the Nicaragua boats running to Aspinwall and Panama. We hear also that another line of boats will be put on the Transit route by the parties who own the new grant. In the present state of affairs, however, in Nicaragua, passengers will undoubtedly prefer the Panama route, where they are not likely to be subject to interruption by the arbitrary will of a military adventurer. The Weekly Bank Statement shows an unexpectedly large decrease in the specie line. The shipments of Friday and Saturday week, which but slightly affected the average of that week, are now felt in their full force, and added to the shipments of last week and the Sub-Treasury drain, have produced the deficiency. Meanwhile the effect of the California receipts has not been felt. The Banks hold to day, undoubtedly, more than they did at the time of the previous statement. The movement of specie with regard to the interior is toward this city, but Boston is drawing coin from us. The average of loans continues to show an increase, but there is believed to have been some contraction during the latter part of the week. The deposits show an apparent decrease of about $125,000, but the real

The business of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad for the month of February and for the previous two months, completing the first quarter of the pres ent fiscal year, compared with the receipts and expenditures for the corresponding period of time last

| Received from coal. | 1856. | 1855. | Received from merchandise | 20,608 65 | 20,772 2 | Received from travel, &c. | 17,127 84 | 17,745 6 20,772 20 17,745 42 Total net profit for three months . $147,388 27 $283,729 49

The receipts from coal and merchandise have in-creased in February this year over the receipts from the same conrece in February last year. The receipts from travel have fallen off slightly. The expenses have been increased, leaving the net profits of the menth rather less than in February last year. The net profits of the quarter are $146,331 less than for the corresponding quarter last year. The earnings of the Milwaukee and Mississippi

Road for February were $28,646 70, against $26,808 for the corresponding month last year. That the increase was no larger is due to the inclemency of the weather and the fall in the price of grain, which has induced farmers to held back their crops until Spring opens. The Milwaukce Sentinel says: "We do not doubt that our Wisconsin railroads will have all they can do as seen as navigation opens."

The following will show the comparative earnings of the Eric Railroad during five months for three years:

18.53-54. 1854-55. 1855-56.
Cetober. $538.675 $31.429 $600,139
November 461.266 491.492 $35.616
December. 381.279 $454.431 $59.269
January 357.242 477.356 462.818
February 357.629 $40.751 $92.719

through is seen in the above receipts, which for January and February, though equal to the previous year, are $155,000 less than what was considered a fair estimate in the early part of February. March and the following mouths will undoubtedly bring up a considerable portion of the business which should have been done in January and February. The traffic receipts of the Indianopolis and Cincinnati

Railread are steadily increasing, and show a large gain for this Winter over last year, in spite of the unfavorable weather which has so much interfered with the business on most of the Western Railroads. The receipts for showing about 40 & cent for the three months over the corresponding term of last year. The recent opening of the Terre Haute and Alton Railroad is beginning to add to the traffic on this line, and an early addition to the rolling stock of the Company is now necessary to accommodate the business.

December were. 1853-4. 1854-5. 1855-6. 1856-6. $59,253 $85,200 $119,152

We hear that the Wednesday steamer will take all the gold bars that can be had—probably half a million.

The rate of exchange is not yet high enough for coin.

The business of the Clearing House to-day was $31,952,000, which has never been exceeded, excepting in one instance in November last, when it reached $32,800,000. The simultaneous arrival of several Western mails on Saturday caused these large but little inquiry for export at present rates. State Brands are selling at $6 62] a $7. Southern descriptions are heavy and dull. Wheat is firm, in consequence of diminished stock; but the market is quiet; sales of 3,000 bushs, good White Canadian at $1 924 Corn is firmer; but there is but little doing for export; sales of Western Mixed at 70 272c. Mess Pork has advanced 12 je., and Prime is buoyant. Beef is steady and in fair demand. Beef Hams are active, and 1,200 bbls, sold at $13 @ $16 50. Bacon is scarce and firm. Lard is steady at 10 #11c. The advance in Cotton has checked transactions. Coffee and Sugar are rance of rents by the agency of the Liverpool and London Fire and Life Insurance Company in this city as a new feature in insurance, several officers of home Companies have addressed letters to the journal in question, denying the novelty of the system and stating that the practice has been common here for some years. The proposition of the London and Liverpool

Company is as follows:

"The Liverpool and London Fire and Life Insurance Company will make insurance against loss of rents by Fire, on a new and most liberal principle; the following is the form of a policy;

"It is understood and agreed that it is the intent of the Company to ship, independently the company to ship independently the company to ship in the company to ship independently the company to ship in the company to ship in the company to the company that is the company to the company t

"It is understood and agreed that it is the intent of the Company to fully indemnify the insured from any loss of rent he may sustain by a fire happening to the building, not exceeding the amount insured by this policy. Loss to be computed from the day of occur-rence of any fire. Loss not to be limited by the day of expiration named in the policy. In case of total or partial loss of the building, it shall be assumed to be the duty of the insured as a basis for the settlement of the loss of rent, to rebuild or repair (as the case may be) the premises, with all convenient dispatch, and the sum insured will be taken as the yearly rent of premises."

In case of disagreement as to the amount due from the Campany under this policy, it shall be left to the arbitration of disinterested individuals mutually Rents are insured by other Companies, but the difference, as we understand it, between this insurance and that of other Companies, is that the rent, in case of loss, paid by the above Company does not stop with the expiration of the policy, but runs on until the premises are rebuilt and the owner receives rent again from tenants; while under the policies of other Companies the rent is only paid up to the day of the expiration of the policy. Thus a loss taking place 1st March under a policy in the Liverpool and London Company and another in a home Company, both policies expiring on the 1st April, the home office would pay the insured one month's rent, while the Liverpool and London office would continue to pay until the premises were rebuilt. If we are wrong and any home Company has been insuring rent in the same way, we will willingly make the correction.

The question between Measrs, Monroe & Co. and Mesers. Groesbeck, alluded to yesterday, has been referred to two members of the Board for arbitration. The question to be settled is whether Messrs, Groesbeck shall pay 21, the price at which the stock was bought, or 19, at which Nicaragua was sold after the news was generally known.

The Cincinnati Commercial of Tuesday says: "The creditors of Cassius M. Clay of Kentucky refused to accept of the assignment he made in their favor, and expressed their willingness that he should again take his assets into his own hands and manage them to the best advantage, and pay off his debts when he could." when he could.'

The Richmond (Va.) Dispatch says the two Houses of the Legislature of that State have disagreed on the Bank bills. The two bodies declare their determination to put the Banks on the specie-currency basis, but they differ as to the mode. The Senate says the proper mode is to make every Bank pay its own notes at its counter. The House says not. It is proposed to adjust the difference by conference.

NEW AND IMPORTANT INVENTION—
STARR, FELLOWS & Co.'s

NEW LAMP FOR BURNING FLUID.

PATENTED MARCH 13, 1855.

In setting forth the merits of this Lamp, it is not necessary to disparage any of the numerons materials used and advertised for Illuminating purposes. It is sufficient for our purpose to know this fact: that the great majority of people continue to return to and use BURNING FLUID, after having tried the various kinds of Coal Oil—good evidence, we think, that it possesses many advantages over them all. Some of these advantages may be thus stated:

1st. Its universality of production. Good Burning Fluid may be procused everywhere.

2d. Its perfect cleanliness—which all will agree is a first-class virtue.

3d. Its sweetness and healthiness of odor.

4th. Its adaptation to portable as well as stationary lamps.

5th. It is not injured by age or change of climate.

5th. Its sepense is below the average of other lighting materials.
